Biography

Sarah is an award-winning serial entrepreneur and investor in startups, having founded eight companies since 2009. Following several successful exits, she is currently the CEO of Wealth Enhancers (Gen Y financial advisory firm) and Grow My Team (global recruitment) and sits on the board of the League of Extraordinary Women. She is personally fuelled by a passion for community, gender equality and living life on one's own terms.

Sarah is a speaker, blogger and the author of Get Rich Slow, appearing on television and writing for many popular publications. She has also held board positions on several not-for-profit organisations, including Project Futures, Entrepreneurs' Organisation (EO), the Association of Financial Advisers (AFA) and the Institute for Global Women Leaders.

Her financial expertise has been recognised on numerous occasions, including the Money Management awards Financial Planner of the Year, AFA Rising Star two years in a row, AFA Female Excellence in Advice finalist, Women in Financial Services Woman of the Year finalist and Industry Advocate.

Recognised as the Independent Financial Adviser Magazine's Thought Leader of the Year, Sarah was also named as one of Melbourne's Top 100 most influential, inspiring and creative citizens by The Age and listed in the Top 50 Female Entrepreneurs under 40 by Shoestring.

She has completed the Entrepreneurial Master Program at MIT, holds a Bachelor of Business (Financial Planning) and several diplomas.

Sometimes we forget the power we have to turn our life into anything we want it to be

We have two options when we face the unknown: we can buy into the fear, or instead wonder at the possibility

Don't let your expectations kill your happiness
